STOCKHOLDERS AU-SABLE FURS MET

BANQUET AT INN; ELECT OFFICERS; DISCUSS BUSINESS.

Stockholders of AuSable Furs, Inc., an organization operating at Simpson lake, held a meeting in Grayling Saturday for the election of officers and to discuss business affairs of the organization. A number of the stockholders arrived early in the day and spent the time at their place which is more familiarly known as Grayling as "Simpson Lake." In the evening they enjoyed a banquet at Shoppenagons Inn, and later in the evening held a business session in the parlors of the Board of Trade club rooms.

About two years ago Mr. R. A. Wright, of Detroit, purchased this property, consisting of 440 acres, from the late Mr. Pomeroy, and later organized a stock company with the idea of fur production. Already the company has a fine start in muskrats and Chinchilla rabbits. Also a trout hatchery is being constructed for the purpose of hatching trout and raising them to sell.

This is principally an industrial proposition and is organized for profit. The place is ideal for the purpose for which it is intended. It is located about a mile from Grayling, off DuPont road. Within the 440 acres are two fine lakes and a number of small streams. One lake is fed entirely from innumerable small springs. It is well stocked with brook trout and schools of hundreds of these beauties may be seen at any time, and among them are trout that would weigh several pounds. Naturally the water here is cold and is well adapted for trout.

The second lake is entirely enclosed by a fine mesh wire fence on the top of which is sheet metal about a foot in height. This lake contains muskrats. The animals had no trouble to climb the wire fence but are not able to scale the metal strip, thus the escape of the animal is stopped and also natural enemies are kept out.

Starting with a stock of 125 muskrats a year ago, it is estimated that the number has increased to about 300. These animals are regularly fed and looked after. They multiply rapidly and it is expected that within a couple of years there will be a colony of rats sufficiently large to furnish a surplus for sale annually. There is a ready market for both live animals for breeding purposes and for pelts.

One building unit for the breeding of Chinchilla rabbits has been completed and already there has been a nice increase among the colony. The Chinchilla rabbit doesn't grow as large as the Belgian and Flemish giant variety, but are of a much finer grade. Their color is a handsome gray and the fur is very fine and beautiful. Several more units will be constructed as fast as the increase in rabbits demands more space.

Since acquiring the property Mr. Wright has had a force of men busy on construction work. The Pomeroy home has been enlarged and remodelled and is now a very complete, modern residence, and is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Trout culture here is just starting. Workmen are busy excavating for ponds, water for which is being supplied by the trout lake from which there is a fine flow of water. A hatchery with hatching and developing troughs will be built ready for service by next fall which is the spawning period for brook trout. For the past year experiments in feeding have been under way, using foods that are natural to trout and that in no way impair their flavor for eating.

The lake used for breeding the muskrats is entirely enclosed, requiring 98 rods of wire fencing. It is the plan of the company to fence in the other lake also. Mr. Wright says that due to the nature of the project all trespassing on the property has been restricted. This is necessary, he says, to prevent the disturbing of the animals.

A Place of Beauty.

This is a most charming spot. The banks along the lakes and streams are full of small springs from which there is a steady flow of ice cold water, furnishing clear, sparkling water for the home and for the trout pond and streams. The setting is in the very midst of timber land, wild and in its natural state and abounding in deer, bear, partridge and other wild animals and birds. Deer are so plentiful here that one or more may be seen at almost any time. Naturally no hunting or fishing is allowed at the place.

The stockholders were greatly delighted with the place, in which they take a lot of interest and pride. Mr. Wright, the manager, secretary-treasurer, is a busy man and is pushing the development of the enterprise so as to take care of the increase in stock that is certain to come. He stated that within another year that the improvements will be so extensive that one would hardly recognize it as the same place.

Elect Officers.

At the meeting held at the Board of Trade rooms Saturday night the following officers were elected:

President—Harold F. Coyle, attorney, Detroit.

Vice president—C. W. Morrison, Detroit.

Secretary-Treasurer—R. A. Wright, Grayling.

The board of directors consists of the above named officers and E. R. Chapman, managing editor of the Kalamazoo Gazette, Kalamazoo, and W. H. Hines, Detroit.

Among others present at the stockholders meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stowell, Lansing; Raymond Chapman, and C. L. Close, Kalamazoo; Harry Lang and Wm. Holme-Shaw, Saginaw; Mrs. A. M. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morrison, Detroit.

The board of supervisors now in session again turned down the request for an annual appropriation for Mercy Hospital.

The original proposal was for an annual appropriation of $1,500 to aid toward making up the deficit of that institution. This was rejected at the April session. At that time Supervisors Nelson, Grayling, and Kellogg, Lovells, voted in favor of the proposition, with Supervisors Goshorn, Frederic, Edmunds, Maple Forest, Love, Beaver Creek and Scott, Maple Forest voting against it.

A motion was made to present the proposition again for reconsideration at this meeting. A large delegation of citizens called upon the board and presented reasons why the appropriation should be passed. Figures were introduced to show that the additional cost to the taxpayer per $1,000.00 valuation was only 50 cents.

The motion for reconsideration was defeated by a vote of five to one. Supervisor Nelson being the only member of the board to vote in favor of it.

We know of no other place in which a hospital is apparently so little appreciated as in Crawford county. In Grayling the sentiment is overwhelmingly in favor of making the appropriation to the hospital but the rural townships provided the supervisors voice the sentiments of the people, the people oppose it. Grayling township paying half the tax of the county, is dominated by the others.

MODEL LOGGING CAMP AT PINES

Grayling, which is the center of an unusually attractive recreational area, is to have added to its attractions a new magnet for the tourist and resorter. The Hanson Pine tract near Grayling presented to the state, sometime ago as a memorial to Major Edward Hartwick, is to be the site of the reproduction of an old fashioned logging camp such as was used in Michigan more than a half century ago. Work on the building of this typical lumber camp will start next month. The buildings will be constructed of logs grown on the site. Lumbering interests of the state will equip the building with all the tools used in the logging days from the first time when the first woodman's axe fell in Michigan up to the present time. The exhibit will be the only one of its kind in the country.

Grayling also has many attractions for the tourist and resorter. Near the headwaters of the famous AuSable River, it is noted because of the location nearby of the Hanson Military Reservation of 16,000 acres and the presence of one of Michigan's best fish hatcheries. A golf course in the city is also available to tourists.

EAST TAWAS TO ENTERTAIN STATE PARK VISITORS
(By E. M. T. Service)
One of the innovations which will contribute to the growing popularity of the East Tawas State Park is the decision of the East Tawas Chamber of Commerce to supply band concerts to the tourists in the park during the summer. The East Tawas high school band, composed of boys and girls, will supply music on every Wednesday and Saturday night during the summer.

The community hall erected on the property of East Tawas which is available to tourists in inclement weather at all times will be used during the season for dances and other entertainments.

The East Tawas State Park was the second state park to be established in Michigan.

NAVAL OFFICER TO MAKE FLIGHT
According to a recent bulletin from the Navy Recruiting Station at Detroit, Michigan, the Navy is contemplating another trans-oceanic flight. Lieutenant Arthur Gavin now attached to the U. S. S. Memphis will pilot the craft. He plans to fly from Philadelphia to Paris, stopping at Maine enroute. A Sikorsky twin motored plane will be used. Lieutenant Gavin is one of the Navy's outstanding aviators and is holder of the Herbert Schiff Trophy for flying the greatest number of hours during the fiscal year without an accident. Lieutenant Gavin's record is 865 flying hours.

CHANGES IN POSTAL RATES EFFECTIVE JULY 1
On the first of July the people of this country will get the advantage of the new postal rates, adopted at the last session of congress. There are no sweeping changes, yet those that were made will be helpful to the average person.

Some years ago congress increased the duty on private postal cards from one cent, as they were before, to two cents. This rate has now been restored to the old figure, so that on and after July 1st private postal cards can be sent at the one cent rate. There have also been reductions in the special delivery fees for two pounds to ten pounds and above the letter weight. This reduction was made in the interest of farmers who wish to send products of any kind by mail.

A Busy Cupid

June is fulfilling its reputation as the month of brides, there being more than the usual number of weddings in Grayling.

Three of Grayling's well known and highly esteemed young women became brides this week, and a strange co-incidence is the fact that all are graduates of Grayling High school of the same class—that of '24. Monday evening, Miss Helen Dorothea Ziebell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ziebell became the bride of Mr. Frederic Douglas Catlin of Detroit, and on Tuesday in Midland occurred the wedding of Miss Ruth Harrington, daughter of Mr. Fred Harrington of that city to Mr. Ralph Kleinert, of St. Louis, Mich. Miss Emma Claribel Lovely, the third member of the class, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lovely, became the bride of Mr. Oscar Goss of Kalamazoo, Wednesday afternoon. Also Mrs. Catlin and Mrs. Goss were room mates, while attending Ferris Institute, Big Rapids.

ZIEBELL-CATLIN
A pretty wedding ceremony Monday evening at six o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ziebell, united in marriage Miss Helen Dorothea Ziebell and Mr. Frederic Douglas Catlin of Detroit. Rev. H. H. Pollard of Vanderbilt officiated at the ceremony and the bride was attended by her cousin, Mrs. John Yuill of Vanderbilt and Mr. Yuill assisted as best man.

The bride was lovely in a gown of pale green silk crepe with which she wore a corsage of pink rosebuds, or chrysids and lilies-of-the-valley, while her bridesmaid was costumed in flesh colored chiffon and her corsage was yellow rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley. White silk hose and kid slippers completed their costumes. Pink and white were the bride's chosen colors and the home was lovely with flowers in these shades, making a pretty setting for the affair.

Following the ceremony a bridal dinner of lovely appointments was served, a beautifully decorated wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom on it, centered the dinner table, the guests being the immediate members of the families. After dinner the happy young couple left on a honeymoon trip by motor, that will take them to Washington D.C., Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York, Toronto and Montreal, expecting to be gone two weeks, at the end of which time they will return to Detroit to reside.

Mrs. Catlin is a graduate of Grayling High School of the class of 1924 and for the past two years has been employed in Detroit for the General Motors Corporation. The groom is the son of Mrs. Maude Catlin, Detroit and he is a foreman at the Murray Auto Body Works. Congratulations

BIG DEMAND FOR E. M. T. 1928 GUIDE

(By E. M. T. Service)
The demand for the 1928 tourist guide and directory issued by the East Michigan Tourist Association is so strong that the association has been compelled to place a price of 20c per copy upon the guide to non-members.

One member of the association declares that the guide is the most complete Michigan guide he has ever seen. "The maps of the counties which subscribe to the association," he said, "with the accompanying articles on the counties are interesting and instructive. The map of the state, the road logs, list of golf courses, digest of fishing laws, list of state parks, synopsis of motor laws, railroad time tables, etc., are of immense value. The guide is altogether the most compact useful and informative booklet that I have ever seen anywhere. The association is to be congratulated upon its progressiveness in issuing this guide."

and best wishes of the bride's many Grayling friends are extended to the young couple.

HARRINGTON-KLEINERT
Many were surprised and delighted to hear of the marriage of Miss Ruth Harrington of Midland to Mr. Ralph Kleinert of St. Louis, Mich., which took place on Tuesday, June 26, in Midland. Mrs. Kleinert is well known here, having resided in Grayling during her girlhood days. She left soon after her graduation in the class of 1924 to attend the Central Normal at Mt. Pleasant. In 1926 she taught school at the Funk school district, and for the last two years has taught in Midland. She is considered a very fine young lady and is held in high esteem by her many friends, who extend congratulations and best wishes for her happiness. The young couple intend to spend their honeymoon in Canada.

LOVELY-GOSS
At the hour of one o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Miss Emma Claribel Lovely and Mr. Oscar Goss of Kalamazoo were united in marriage at St. Mary's parsonage by Rev. J. L. Culligan. Attending the young couple were Miss Lucille Goss, sister of the groom and the bride's brother, Mr. Richard Lovely.

Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lovely.

The bride, who as we mentioned above as a graduate of the local high school of '24 attended Ferris Institute and later went to Bay City, where she has been employed since. She is popular with her friends and has the best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

FR. RIESS GIVEN LARGE PURSE

HONORED BY PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS ON SILVER JUBILEE

The silver jubilee of Rev. Fr. John J. Riess, pastor of St. Mary's church, Grand Rapids, and formerly of St. Mary's church, Grayling was celebrated in great manner in Grand Rapids last Sunday. The Grand Rapids Press of Monday said the following in part:

"In appreciation of the services of Rev. John J. Riess, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, who on Sunday celebrated his silver jubilee, a purse of $2,000 was given him by his parishioners at a reception in St. Joseph's casino Sunday evening."

Albert J. Alt in presenting the gift said, "During these 25 years our pastor has labored in the care of souls and in this time there has not been a day when he has not been sincerely and honestly solicitous to fill his duties as pastor according to the will of God." Fr. Riess also received a wrist watch from his church committee.

Speakers at the noonday banquet, which followed the jubilee mass, and at the evening reception lauded the jubilarian on attaining 25 years of service in the priesthood and for the character of his services during these years. Congratulatory messages were received from Gov. Fred W. Green, Mayor Elvin Swarthout and Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, bishop of Cleveland and former pastor of St. Mary's.

Rt. Rev. Joseph G. Pinten, bishop of Grand Rapids, attended the jubilee mass services and congratulated the jubilarian. Several priests from outside the diocese, besides the 35 members of the diocese, were attendants at the church ceremonies. More than 150 members of the local congregation and visitors from his former parishes at Grayling and Saginaw were present at the banquet, and a large assemblage crowded the casino at the reception in the evening."

Fr. Riess' friends in Grayling also remembered him with a substantial purse and with it went many hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Those who attended from Grayling were Thomas Cassidy, Mr. and Mrs. William Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Powell and son Chester.

Brief funeral services were held at the home in Alma Tuesday afternoon following which the remains were brought to Grayling by the Wright funeral car and services held at the Michelson Memorial church, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. D. N. Earl of Frederic conducting same.

Previous to moving to Alma about a year ago, Mr. Stoner was employed at the local M. C. roundhouse. Surviving the deceased are his wife and four children, Mrs. John Hiltz, Grayling, Mrs. Charles Boddy, Rose City and Thelma and Viorance of Alma. Mrs. Stoner expects to return to Grayling soon to take up her residence. She and her family have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

HAVE BRAKES TESTED GET STICKER

Michigan's special accident-prevention campaign will come to an official end on June 30. In the meantime there is plenty of opportunity for every owner of an automobile to have his car examined for faulty mechanism, brakes, lights, or anything likely to make safe and careful driving impossible. Not only is an official sticker on your car a sign that you are a careful driver, willing to abide by the rules of the road, but it is a badge of good citizenship as well. Don't let the end of the campaign come without complying with this simple request.

Local Garages to help

The State Safety Council of Lansing has appointed the following garages with authority to test brakes, lights, steering and horn: Corwin Auto Sales; George Burke and Jess Schoonover. This is the last week for the safety drive. Have your car inspected and get a sticker on your windshield.

No charge for this inspection.

TOURISTS ARE COMING NORTH

(By E. M. T. Service)

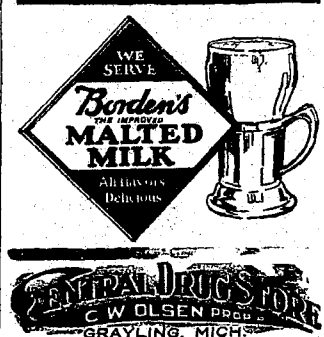

The tourist and resorter will turn their attention Michiganward in increasing numbers. For the past two weeks this tendency has been noticeable.

The influx, according to some of the northern papers, has been delayed somewhat by late spring, although the Cheboygan Tribune says not more so than last year. The same newspaper says that the opening of summer cottages several weeks ago assumed the proportions of real business, that builders in all trades identified with resort industries have all they can attend to. Merchants in the city of Cheboygan have for several weeks noted a decided increase in trade and this increase has steadily grown in the interval.

STRAIGHTFORWARD ADVERTISING

When business puts itself publicly on record in the matter of its purposes and ideals, it lifts itself by its spiritual bootstraps. Such a public declaration of decency and honesty enlists the entire community as a cloud of witnesses. The advertiser must produce as advertised or he will surely fail.

Then when a business has a genuine story of sincere service to tell, it must tell it simply and persistently.

Two men delivered speeches about sixty years ago at Gettysburg. One man was the greatest orator of his day, and he spoke for two hours and a half. No one remembers a single sentence of his oration today. The other man spoke less than five minutes, and every school child has at some time learned Lincoln's Gettysburg address and remembered more or less of it all his life.

Advertising should be as simple and direct as the Gettysburg speech, the Lord's prayer and the twenty-third psalm.

Advertising men are constantly being called on by the heads of industries that are in a jam, who want advertising to accomplish for them in three months what they should have been working on for ten years. No thoughtful advertising man will be responsible for the results of such an effort. This business of public relations is a constant business. The fact that his story was told yesterday should not lead any business man into the delusion of believing he does not need to tell it today.—Bruce Barton in the Nation's Business.

SAVING FOR SUNSHINY DAY AS IMPORTANT AS SAVING FOR RAINY ONE

(By S. W. Straus, President American Society for Thrift.)

We hear a great deal about saving for the rainy day. This is laudable. We do not hear enough about saving for the sunny day—saving in the midst of poverty for the prosperity and success that are bound to come to those who practice thrift.

Here is a story that will illustrate the point: A certain young man and his bride, immediately after their marriage, moved to a farm where he received $240 a year, a house to live in, a garden plot and free milk. The first year they saved $150. For seven years the couple remained on the farm, adding steadily to their savings. Then they moved to a nearby city where he secured employment in a factory. In due time his thrift and industry brought him to the special attention of his employers, greater responsibilities were placed on his shoulders, and he began to move up.

Today he is at the head of one of America's greatest businesses.

Saving even of very small amounts will bring results entirely out of proportion to the sums laid by, and these small amounts in the course of a few years will grow to tidy sums which will then be ready when Opportunity comes.

But what is of still greater importance is the mental and moral discipline which comes with saving money at a period in one's life when such saving means real personal sacrifice.

These are the processes that built character. If there is magic anywhere in the development of possessions, it lies in the poor man's savings.

VALUABLE INFORMATION

Don't leave the lettuce that forms the "bed" of a salad. Lettuce is extremely rich in certain of the important vitamins and mineral salts. It also supplies bulk to the diet.

When making summer dresses of voile, cut off all selvages, even in straight skirts. Otherwise the material will shrink when washed. Voile sometimes shrinks when washed, and it is well to make allowances for this in cutting.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of peace" from household insects in warm weather. Many of the most troublesome ones feed on crumbs, scraps, and other exposed food. The only way to beat these pests—ants, cockroaches, and flies, especially—is to keep food supplied in tight metal or glass containers, and clean up promptly any food crumbs that may be scattered about. Never leave food uncovered. Keep the garbage pail closed, and have it emptied regularly. Rinse it out and line it with clean paper each time it is emptied.

It is not necessary to drain the juice from canned vegetables or fruits. If the food in the can is good to eat, the juice is. In the case of vegetables especially, the juice contains some of the valuable food constituents which have been dissolved in it during the canning process. These can be saved by serving the juice in the form of sauce with the vegetable, or using it in soups and gravies. Juices from canned fruits can always be added to fruit drinks to sweeten and flavor them, or used in pudding sauces or fruit gelatins.

Soil Nourishment

Phosgene is used in dye making. In the form of farm manure, nitrogenous fertilizers and green manure crops, like clover and soy beans. Phosphorus may be added by applying phosphate fertilizers or farm manure. Potassium may be added to a soil. In the form of farm manure, crop residues and potash fertilizers.

AFFAIRS IN WASHINGTON

(By Congressman Roy O. Woodruff.)

The 1927 Agricultural Yearbook has just been published, and I have an allotment to my credit so that those who write in to me for copies may be assured of having their requests filled without delay. It is a twelve hundred page, cloth bound volume, written especially for the farmer as a means of keeping him posted on "What's New in Agriculture" annually. Those who are interested in obtaining this Yearbook should write me at Room 506, House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C., and as long as the supply lasts, I will be only too glad to send them out without charge.

The Treasury Department has just published a statement showing receipts from foreign governments on war debts for the first six months of 1928. The amount paid by each government is as follows: Great Britain $87,200,000, Hungary $29,133,011, France $11,250,000, Latvia $40,000, Italy $5,000,000, Lithuania $82,070, Belgium $3,575,000, Poland $1,250,000, Czechoslovakia $1,500,000, Roumania $400,000, Estonia $100,000, Yugoslavia $200,000, Finland $131,400.

Senator McNary of Oregon, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, stated June 21 that upon his return from Oregon to Washington, D. C., early in November, he will confer with others interested in farm legislation with a view to formulating a farm relief measure for submission to the Senate when Congress reassembles in December.

All of the nations which are members of the Pan American Union have been invited to take part in a Pan American Conference on Conciliation and Arbitration to meet in Washington December 10, according to an announcement by the Department of State on June 20. The Secretary of State, Frank B. Kellogg, and Charles Evans Hughes, will represent the United States at this conference, it was stated. Invitations to the 20 republics, members of the Union, were telegraphed by the Department of State June 19 through the American diplomatic posts in those countries. The Conference is to be held in accordance with a resolution adopted by the Sixth Pan American Conference in Havana last winter which advocated "obligatory" arbitration.

Horsepower

James Watt and Matthew Boulton, in the Eighteenth century, began to manufacture hoisting engines to supplement the horses then used in the mines of England. They tested the pulling power of a heavy draft horse and found that a horse could lift 330 pounds of coal 100 feet in 1 minute, which is equivalent to lifting 33,000 pounds 1 foot in 1 minute, the accepted test of horsepower today.

Often Seen but Seldom Passed

Many times on many highways you will glimpse the red Indian head that identifies a Pontiac Six from the rear. Sometime you will find a man at the wheel who shows that he's headed for distant points. Follow him hour after hour, all day long. Follow him, that is, if your car will stand the pace.
When you do you will witness a marvelous exhibition of high-speed endurance. And if you can have it checked from radiator to tail-light at its destination, you will find it none the worse for hard driving, no matter how strenuous the trip.
The Pontiac Six is built for just such a test as that. That's why it's often seen on the road—but very seldom passed!

The Rosetta Stone
To the Rosetta stone, found in Rosetta, Egypt, by officers of the French army under Napoleon, we owe much of our knowledge of Egyptian history. Here the same story was told in three kinds of writing, one of which was the unknown Egyptian, and through their knowledge of one of these, men learned to read the others.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES

Sheep Growers Told to Watch Parasites

East Lansing, June 26.—Sheep raisers should be on the lookout for stomach worms in their flocks, advises the animal husbandry department at Michigan State College. Warm, muggy weather, with frequent rainfall, is said to be conducive to the development of this parasite in sheep, and heavy losses are likely to occur if precaution is not taken.

Infestations of stomach worms are said to occur most frequently when sheep are left to graze on the same pasture year after year, although heavy infestations and losses may occur with the flock on new pasture. This is due to the fact that a number of these parasites may be carried over in the digestive tract of the breeding ewe, and, in seasons such as the present, may heavily infest a new pasture in a single season.

The presence of stomach worms in a flock is indicated by the lambs becoming dull and listless and the wool dry and harsh. The skin, which should be a bright pink, becomes pale, and the eyelids are pale and colorless when they should be a network of bright red blood vessels. Diarrhea is also often present.

When any of the above symptoms are present in a flock, or if a number of the sheep were not thrifty last season, treatment for stomach worms with copper sulphate is recommended. Full directions for this treatment may be had from county agents or from the animal husbandry department of Michigan State College.

High Grade Alfalfa In Constant Demand

A much larger quantity of high grade alfalfa could be profitably marketed in the United States if producers would study market demands and then make their production and loading practices conform to the market requirements, according to Edward C. Parker, hay making specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Great numbers of dairymen who do not utilize much alfalfa but depend largely on mill feeds for protein, he says, would become buyers of alfalfa if supplies of high grade alfalfa were available at all times. Many farmers are intermittent sellers of low-grade, surplus hay but comparatively few specialize in the production of high-grade, market alfalfa. Purity, a high percentage of leaves, clinging foliage, green color, and pliable stems are the essential characters of high-grade alfalfa. The experience of Federal hay inspectors is that the most common causes of low-grade alfalfa are meadows with this stand, foreign material in the form of partly decayed rakings, weather damage, over-ripeness at time of cutting, over-drying, baling under-cured hay, stacking distinctly under-cured hay, and baling during very hot, dry, or windy weather.

In most instances, Mr. Parker says, alfalfa intended for market should be cut when one-tenth to one-fourth in bloom, or when new growth starts from the crowns irrespective of the bloom. There will be little, if any, increase of tonnage gained by allowing the crop to stand longer. At this stage of maturity the leaves usually constitute anywhere from 45 per cent to 55 per cent of the total weight of the plants, and the stems have not become objectionably hard and woody. The grade of U. S. No. 1 alfalfa can be obtained in practically all alfalfa districts of the United States when crops are cut at this stage of maturity, providing the hay is properly cured and baled and not subjected to much damage from the essential points in preserving leafiness and color and preventing over-drying are (1) to facilitate rapid evaporation of a large part of the moisture in the newly mown hay by exposing it to the sun and wind in the swath, where the rate of evaporation is faster than in the windrows, bales or stacks, and (2) to perform the operations of raking and windrowing while the hay is tough and the leaves not easily shattered.

The side delivery rake, Mr. Parker says, is specially adapted to making windrows of wilted and tough alfalfa that will cure and color uniformly with the minimum loss of leaves and color. Average crops of alfalfa hay wilted in the swath will cure almost as quickly. In side-delivery rake windrows as though fully cured in the swath and the grade of the hay is much superior. The side-delivery rake, he declares, is an essential machine in the production of high grade alfalfa.

Baling direct from the windrow is practiced in many areas, but the chief difficulty encountered in producing high grade alfalfa by this method is that of getting the hay to the baler in the ideal condition for baling. The condition of the hay at time of baling may be controlled in part by regulating the quantity of hay cut, down and windrowed according to the capacity of the press and by drawing in the hay methodically from the field according to the extent of the curing in the swath and windrow. Some of the highest grade alfalfa comes direct from districts where the hay is put up in large stacks with sleds and a derrick and allowed to sweat prior to baling.

A detailed account of haymaking, curing and baling practices in the United States, together with recommendations as to the best methods of performing these operations has been published by the United States Department of Agriculture in a mimeograph pamphlet written by Mr. Parker, and entitled "High Grade Alfalfa, Methods of Production, Baling, and Loading for Market." Copies may be obtained by writing the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

"WELL, he ought not to be so hard on beat," was the only comment of Gov. Al Smith when informed of Hoover's nomination as the Republican candidate for President.

EARL KLINCK, former right-hand man of the Klan dragon, D. C. Stephenson, was convicted by a jury in the criminal court at Indianapolis of being accessory in attesting a false affidavit. Conviction carries a one to three-year prison term. Klinck appealed.

Klinck, once a policeman at Evansville, was Stephenson's personal bodyguard. His present predicament followed an attempt to have indictments returned against Tom Adams, crusading anti-klan publisher at Vincennes, and Boyd Gurley, Pulitzer prize editor of Indianapolis, following presentation of a forged affidavit to the federal grand jury at Indianapolis last fall.

UNITED States District Judge Thomas B. Thatcher of New York dismissed the federal suit in equity against the Standard Aircraft corporation to recover $2,394,488.43, which it alleged had been illegally paid in settlement of war air contracts. A counter claim of the defendant for an additional payment of $142,000 also was dismissed.

The case included testimony from former War department officials and officers of the airplane company, which during the war had held contracts for aircraft for the government totaling about $11,000,000.

THE elimination of President Coolidge as a candidate to succeed himself caused a tremendous crash on the New York stock market Monday. Prices broke from 2 to 25 points. Not since the hectic record-breaking session of March, 1926, has the exchange experienced such wild selling. Marked recovery in prices was shown later in the week.

PRESIDENT and MRS. COOLIDGE have settled down for the season at the summer White House on the Bruile river in Wisconsin. After a two days' delay in vacation departure, due to the illness of Mrs. Coolidge, the Presidential party left Washington Wednesday night. Mrs. Coolidge had improved greatly, was cheerful and anxious to get started on the journey. The offices of the White House staff have been established at Superior and the President is expected to motor to that city when business requires his attention.

The President is being guarded by regular troops from Fort Snelling, Minn., who are camped about a quarter of a mile from the lodge.

THE price of educating a public school pupil has more than doubled in the last 15 years. It is shown by figures compiled by the federal bureau of education. In 1913 the cost was $38.31, and the present figure is $102.50.

Expenditures for public school buildings have almost doubled since 1920, with the peak being reached in 1922 when $483,000,000 was spent for new buildings. In 1923, however, the annual expenditure for public school buildings decreased $22,000,000, indicating, the bureau said, that construction had overtaken the shortage caused by the World war.

The bureau attributed the increase in school expenditures to the decreased purchasing power of the dollar and the general improved school facilities.

THE Baltic bitterness, resulting from the unsettled dispute between Lithuania and Poland, remains as the only danger to European peace, was the opinion expressed generally as the council of the League of Nations ended its fiftieth session at Geneva.

Council members made no attempt to conceal their chagrin that the body had found itself unable to liquidate this quarrel. The basis of the dispute is the Polish possession at the city of Vilne, former capital of Lithuania, and recently named anew, in the constitution of that country, as the seat of its government.

Members of the council separated with the feeling that the Baltic situation will be either better or worse by September. If the latter proves to be the case, the whole controversy is likely to be thrashed out before the general assembly of the league.

ROBERT W. STEWART, chairman of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, was acquitted by a jury in the District of Columbia Supreme court in Washington on a charge of refusing to answer questions of the senate investigating committee regarding Continental Oil company bonds. Stewart specifically was accused of violating section 102 of the criminal code, which makes it mandatory that witnesses before congressional committees answer questions pertinent to the subject of inquiry.

ONE of the most picturesque figures in the woman suffrage movement, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, died in a nursing home in London, England, at the age of sixty-nine. Death came after a comparatively short illness.

Mrs. Pankhurst was the first militant suffragist in efforts to obtain the vote for women, millions of whom are now enjoying the privilege of casting their ballots at parliamentary elections as a result of the work of her and her supporters. This early work was often done at great personal risk.

DOELLE OUT FOR LT. GOVERNOR

Bessemer, Mich., June 22.—John A. Doelle, executive secretary of the Michigan Real Estate Association, Friday afternoon, announced his candidacy for the lieutenant governor of Michigan, at the annual meeting here of the Upper Peninsula Association of American Legion Posts. The announcement was made while Mr. Doelle, addressing the gathering, was outlining to the veterans a number of civic and political needs which he said "demand fighting citizens today as much as the greater and more fundamental principles when you offered your lives in their defense in 1918."

Doelle has been very active in civic affairs in Michigan for a number of years, and his entrance complicates the race for the lieutenant governorship. He first became widely known throughout the state when he resigned as superintendent of schools at Houghton to become secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau in 1918. During the same year he was appointed secretary of the war resources committee of the Upper Peninsula. In 1921 he was appointed director of the Michigan bureau of agricultural development, advancing to state commissioner of agriculture in 1922. In 1923 he was selected as vice president of the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul, Minnesota, which controls the distribution of federal farm loans in Michigan, but returned to this state again in 1925 to become secretary-manager of the Michigan Division of the Isaac Walton League of America and executive secretary of the Real Estate Association. He is also national secretary of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association, director of the Michigan Tax Economy League and interested in several other civic movements.

The most important big task facing Michigan today is that of getting action on the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway. Mr. Doelle declared at the veterans' meeting, "to give Michigan sixteen hundred miles of ocean frontage and make the Upper Peninsula the harbor of the interior west. We have never been nearer that goal than now," he continued, "for the man the Republican party recently nominated for its presidential candidate, Herbert Hoover, headed the official commission which some time ago reported so favorably on this project."

Chief among these problems from the standpoint of immediate returns to Northern Michigan, the speaker said, is that of developing the tourist and resort business. "We are just beginning to appreciate the importance of that business to those communities that have few resources. We need to rebuild our out-of-doors to make it as attractive as possible to the visitor and then advertise it so that he knows about it. We are fortunate just now in having Governor Fred W. Green, a chief executive, who is much interested in conservation and who has promised that the next state legislature will pass an appropriation bill for a good state advertising program. But a governor or a state can't develop that industry; it is a job for each of us in our own communities and our own businesses as well, if we would reach its maximum possibilities."

Doelle touched on tax problems briefly, particularly the constantly increasing cost of education, and, from a background of sixteen years in school work, expressed the thought that perhaps the fundamental needs of education were being overshadowed by over-supervision and the stress on buildings, particularly large gymnasiums, which are seldom used to capacity but nevertheless must be paid for and cared for out of tax money. Even the major institutions of learning in Michigan, he said, might operate more economically if directed by a single board or joint executive committee, as the state normals are, so as to eliminate duplications of courses.

Printed Frock

The printed frock this season is not merely a question of "Shall I get one?" but "I simply MUST have one!" No wardrobe this summer will be at all complete without at least one printed frock similar to the one shown above, worn by Renee Adoree. Large prints and small prints, vivid hues and conservatively subdued colors are offered by fashion. This wide variety permits individuality in the printed frocks one chooses today. The frock worn by Miss Adoree has red as its basic color with a small white flower figure. The neckerchief and ties at the wrist, throat and belt are novel touches. An all white or an all red felt sports hat makes a fitting complement to be worn with this frock.

A fine new plate glass window has been placed in the side corner of the Mac & Gidley drug store. This makes a fine improvement to their show space. Also new window signs adorn the upper glass that are in a class by themselves. They are equally attractive day or night. The signs are the work of J. Fairman, who has been pretty busy of late signing Grayling up.

Rev. J. W. Greenwood was called to Durham, Ontario, Friday night by the serious illness of his mother. In spite of Mr. Greenwood's efforts to reach there as soon as possible his mother passed away within two hours before he arrived. He also found his father in such a critical condition that he was unable to attend the funeral, which was held Monday. Rev.
Greenwood is expected to return Friday.

The Nick Schjotz store has without a doubt the finest plate glass show windows of any grocery store in northern Michigan, if not in the state. The store has a new brick front and has been widened, taking in the Nels Olson office, and the entrance has been placed in the corner.
In the front are five plate glass windows set in steel frames covering a front of thirty feet and one large glass fronta Cedar street. Above the plates is a row of prism lights. This is by far the most imposing store front in Grayling and provides a remarkable window display. Harold McNeven, who has been the official window trimmer at that store, we predict will show us some fine trims, just as soon as the place gets settled.
The entire building has been nicely repainted on the outside, and certainly makes a wonderful improvement on the corner. The painting was done by Maurice Gorman & Son.
Nels Olson, who is owner of the building and Nick Schjotz, proprietor of the store are to be congratulated for their community enterprise.
